Education & Cultural Futurist

Ravi’s journey as a rock star, aviator, cultural diplomat for the US Department of State, and keynote speaker is an inspiring example of how to succeed in an ever-changing world.

He is the first American-born descendant of India’s first family (which includes prime ministers Nehru and Gandhi), but his worldwide visibility skyrocketed in 1997 as the guitarist of triple-Grammy-nominee, Hanson, performing at the White House, Madison Square Garden, Saturday Night Live, Today Show, and more.

Ravi later became a pilot and aviation speaker helping the industry attract new student pilots, and in 2015, the US Department of State began sponsoring his cultural programs in Russia, Indonesia, Iraq, and Lebanon.

A highly respected keynote speaker in education leadership, Ravi is also the founder of Ravi Unites Schools—a large network of international K-12 schools whose classes participate in peer-to-peer real-time audio-video interactions—and author of PIVOT: Empowering Students Today to Succeed in an Unpredictable Tomorrow.

KEYNOTE TOPICS

PIVOT: Based on his acclaimed book, PIVOT - Empowering Students Today to Succeed in an Unpredictable Tomorrow, Ravi dives into how our education philosophy needs to pivot in order to teach students how to pivot. “Pivoting” is the essential skill to becoming a lifelong learner who can successfully navigate an ever-changing world ... and his unique story and experiences prove it.

By developing an educational system reflecting cultural competence, equity, and unity, students will discover their individual strengths in context with the world around them. They will grow into compassionate global citizens while mastering the necessary skills for the future of work.

Born into one of the world’s most influential families but rejecting the obvious choices presented to him, Ravi takes the audience on his exciting journey as a rock star, entrepreneur, aviator, and cultural diplomat, and shows how education empowered him to build the relationships and skills to pivot whenever necessary.
